DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, lines 16 and 25, both a counterbalancing weight and a counterweight are claimed. This creates double inclusion issues since it appears to be claiming two separate elements, however, it is the same weight.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Sweet et al.

Sweet et al shows a wobbling sprinkler comprising all the featured elements of the instant invention.

Art Unit: 3752

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Santiesteban et al shows a wobbling sprinkler with a weighted collar for damping vibrations.
